

Tanner Reid

Audio Engineer

Email: tannerreidmusic@gmail.com

Education:

- MacEwan University - Edmonton, Alberta, Canada
Bachelor of Music, Music Recording and Production, 2019 to 2024
- McGill University - Montreal, Quebec, Canada
Master of Music, Sound Recording, 2024 to 2026

Professional Experience:

- MacEwan's Student Studio Technician, August 2022 to April 2023
- Live Sound Technician for MacEwan University Jazz Recitals, January 2023 to April 2023
- Assistant Audio Engineer for Singing Back The Buffalo by Tasha Hubbard, September 2024
- Live Sound Facilitator at McGill University, August 2025 to April 2026

Awards and Achievements:

- McGill John R.E. Bradley Award Recipient (2x), May 2025 and May 2026
- McGill Eleanor Stubleby Recording Prize Recipient, April 2026

Technical Skills:

- Expert in Pro Tools, signal flow & studio architecture, multi-system integration, AoIP (Dante & Ravenna / AES67), and overall studio design and maintenance
- Proficient in orchestral and ensemble recordings across diverse musical settings
- Adaptable to any setting or role, from large scale team oversight to Pro Tools operation
- Experienced in recording sessions, from pre-production & advance planning to final delivery
- Strong communicator with clients and creative teams; builds reliable working relationships
- Thrives under pressure with excellent attention to detail

References:

Please contact me directly for references